Tribute from Travis McDonough

Relation: Jazz events hosted by them

The West Coast Jazz and Blues Society had several fund raising events hosted by the Carstens. It was always the very best food and great musical groups in attendance. Al loved his jazz, and he was most cordial in his manner and in his enjoyment of the music and the social back and forth at his marvelous home. Thank you Al and Arlene for hosting so many of these invitational events--and thank you for all of your support in helping us succeed. We are forever indebted to you and your family. May God Bless all of you. Rest well, Al and look for some great jazz on the other side. Travis McDonough, Sechelt, B. C. (formerly 35 years in Powell River working with the great Peter Taylor.
