

REMEMBERING
Bertha Mary Treakle

April 2, 1941 - March 6, 2020

This is my wish for you: Comfort on difficult days, smiles when sadness intrudes, rainbows to follow the clouds, laughter to kiss your lips, sunsets to warm your heart, hugs when spirits sag, beauty for your eyes to see, friendships to brighten your being, faith so that you can believe, confidence for when you doubt, courage to know yourself, patience to accept the truth, Love to complete your life.

For each thorn, there's a rosebud… For each twilight, a dawn… For each trial, the strength to carry on, For each storm cloud, a rainbow… For each shadow, the sun… For each parting - sweet memories when sorrow is done.

- This is My Wish for You… (by Ralph Waldo Emerson)
