

REMEMBERING
Caroline Barbara Dawe

June 15, 1940 - October 3, 2020

It is with deep sorrow I announce the passing of my ever-loving wife Barbara. She was a true volunteer and caregiver to numerous people she met through her life journey. I often said she was the best wife a man could have: caring, loving and kind. She leaves behind three loving sons Dereck, Bruce and Peter; one brother Robert, a number of beautiful grandchildren and great-grandchildren, along with a list of friends and family too big to name. She will be greatly missed. Love everyone always, because that's what really matters; loving each other (not things) is the only thing that truly brings us joy. And find a way, every day to be grateful for the little things that surround us constantly, because honestly, the little things are what life is made of.

Forever in our hearts.
