

REMEMBERING
Deanna Judith McGregor

July 8, 1964 - February 27, 2013

Entered into eternal rest on Wednesday, February 27, 2013 is our beloved Deanna Judith McGregor. Born July 8, 1964 to Sydney and Daniel Adamson, Deanna shared with the world 48 years of beauty, rarity, and generosity. Deanna is survived by her wonderful husband of 30 years Michael, her beautiful and brave daughter Jordyn, her loving parents Sydney & Daniel, her caring sister Susan, and her admiring niece Kori. Many other very close and dear family members and friends remember Deanna and have been of great support to the aforementioned during their time of struggle. Deanna's strong presence in the lives of others and in the Powell River community will be deeply missed but always remembered in the fondest of ways.

Delphinium, Ad Infinitum

Lavished by her eloquence,
overwhelmed by her beauty,
wisdom and triumph bloom.

Her unique colours flourish,
the open petals of her heart allure,
ever entranced by her lingering perfume.

As seasons do this one must end,
her blossoms falling elegantly to the ground.

She leaves behind an everlasting imprint, that by the memory of her virtue she will forever be found.

-Kori
