

REMEMBERING
Felice Cimaglia

September 14, 1929 - December 5, 2017

With profound sadness we announce the passing of a loving husband, father, nonno, mucho nonno and friend Felice Cimaglia.

He was a family man and after 67 years of marriage filled with so much love and devotion he leaves behind his wife Lena, daughter Anna (Albert), Davina (Roy) and Vittorio (Shelly). His grandchildren Christina, Jennifer, Felicia, Elena, Andrew, Robert, Denise and his adored great grandchildren Ashleigh, Cole, Matthew, Kyle, Sophia, Brayden and Ryan.

At the age of 25 Felice immigrated to Canada from Bagnoli Del Trigno, Italy to Canada with Lena and their four month old daughter Anna. He settled in Powell River where he worked at McMillan Bloedell for over 30 years. He was an amazing carpenter, loved making wine, travelling in his motorhome, hunting on Texada at 3030 Wop Street and making homemade sausage.
