She left home at 16 to train in London, England, also working in Chicago, before coming to Powell River where she worked until she retired at 65. She loved being a nurse. Flora moved to Powell River in 1959, where she married Natale and raised three sons. She was also blessed with two granddaughters. She kept busy in her retirement, socializing with many friends and travelling. Her health limited her later in life, but she made a lot of new friends at the old Olive Devaud Residence and Kiwanis Manor assisted living residence. She was always happy when her family or friends visited. Flora was a very kind, friendly and sweet-natured women. We love her and will miss her. We would like to thank our family and friends for their support. Thank you also to Father Tepoorten and Father Dass, the alter boys, organist, choir and Stubberfield Funeral Home, Flowers by Cori-Lynn, and Town Centre Hotel; Aunt Maureen, Uncle Reg and our cousins John, Sue, Dan and Jeff. And thank you to Dr. Rossouw and his staff Kim and Cindy, Dr. Maguire, her hair dresser Tina and everyone at the old Olive Devaud, Kiwanis Manor and ECU.
