REMEMBERING

Heather Glenda Farrell-Sketchley

September 16, 1948 - October 6, 2021

A daughter born to Robert Richard Farrell and Ada Grace MacKenzie.

Heather was predeceased by her parents and a stepson Lawrence Sketchley.

She is survived by her husband Raymond Sketchley, brother Allan (Jackie), stepchildren Clay (Deborah), Janet (Bob), Tom (Kerri) and 9 grandchildren and 2 great grandchildren.

Heather attended J.P Dallos, Brooks and Max Cameron schools, then went to Royal Jubilee Hospital in Victoria for nurses training.

Heather worked at the Powell River General Hospital and was a First Aid Attendant for the mill. She taught First Aid for St. John Ambulance.

Heather is a serving Sister in St. John Ambulance and served with St. John Ambulance Brigade for many years at games in the parks and other sporting events, Sea Fair, Kathaumixw and other music events.

Heather was a founding member of the Powell River Anti Pollution Society, and a member of the Community Band and Amateur Radio Group, led the Youth Group at he United Church, belonged to the Garden Club and was a founding member of the Citizens on Patrol of Powell River.

Heather shared the position of pianist at the Reformed Church. She also played piano for the Extended Care, Willingdon Creek as well as the Choraleers.

Heather loved to travel and she collected Nativities. She had displays in different places and for the last few years they have been in the Johnston Building on Marine Avenue. Her goal was to put Christ in Christmas.

The family would like to thank Dr. Morwood, Dr. Reierson and the health care nurses for their kind care.
