

REMEMBERING
Hendrikus Johannes Braak

May 30, 1929 - March 31, 2013

Henry, born in 1929, passed away peacefully surrounded by family on March 31, 2013 at Powell River General Hospital.

Henry grew up in Almelo, Holland and moved to Canada in 1954. His travels eventually landed him in Powell River in 1957. Henry worked in the pulp and paper mill as an electrician for 34 years. He married Wilhelmina Stroomer in 1959. They were happily married for 54 years. Henry enjoyed repairing all things electrical. He took great joy in finding out how things worked.

Henry is survived by his wife Wilhelmina, three sons Jack, Henry and Robert (Deidre), granddaughter Holly and grandson Spencer. He is also survived by his sister Mienie Wendels and brother John (Geraldine). He was predeceased by his sister Annie.

Henry had spent the last four years receiving kidney dialysis. The family expresses deep gratitude to the nurses and doctors who assisted him with his medical treatment.
