REMEMBERING

Jessica Elizabeth Medford

August 31, 1970 - June 13, 2022

After a tortuous battle, Jessica succumbed to the ravages of leukemia; her spirit lives on. She leaves to mourn her passing: her mother Pamela Wainwright; and also her friends and neighbours, who held her in high esteem. Jessica was an award-winning dog groomer; she owned Dog Gone Grooming & Boutique and was loved by her clients and loved by their pets. She was an accomplished musician, artist and loved reading. She will be sorely missed. Pamela would like to thank Cheryl for the Go Fund Me campaign and all who donated, and Rosalyn for all of her help through this long journey. Thanks to Sue, Kathy, Ann, Maureen and Norbert, Sterling and Lilly, and a big thank-you to all of you who reached out to Pamela. A quote from Jessica: “The cure was worse than the disease, make art not war.”
