Tribute from Christine Nichols

Relation: A friend from a long time ago.

Dear Lianne: I was so very sorry to hear of Kerry's passing. The years have certainly gone by, and our directions have been down different paths. It was always so great to run into you around town, which was not very often. One time I ran into Kerry's brother, and I thought it was Kerry. I said "Hi", and then I was informed, it wasn't Kerry. It has been a long time since I had seen him, but Kerry was always so nice and friendly, and he was always interested in what was happening in my life. I know you will miss him. I hope the many happy memories will carry you through the difficult times. Please know that you and your family are in my prayers at this time. Love, Christine Nichols
