Tribute from John Hughes

Relation: Friend, workmate and fellow fisherman

Millie, my condolence to you and the family. Neil was an exceptional individual. I worked with him in the mill and fished alongside him for sockeye. In all situations I found Neil to be a hard working gentleman and a friend. Always there to give a helping hand or some knowledgeable piece of advice. He excelled in catching sockeye and helped me to become a better fisherman.

In life, I think, the measure of a man is his positive impact on those around him whether they be family, workmates or friends. Neil made that positive impact. It was a pleasure to have worked with him and to have known him.
