

REMEMBERING

Nellie Marion Macarthur

August 30, 1914 - January 13, 2014

After celebrating her 100th Christmas with her family, Nellie passed peacefully from this life on January 13, 2014.

Nellie was predeceased by her parents Daniel and Ella Reid, her husband and love of her life Charles, sisters Mary and Evelyn, brothers Earl and Archie and her cherished grandson Jason. She is survived by her daughter Jeanette (Barry) Scott, son Allan, grandchildren Tamara (Darryl) Colebank, Sine (Brent) Chernenkoff, Francis (Phomany) Scott, Ryan (Nicole) MacArthur, Carmen (Leon) Janzen and Kimberley Rodgerson, great-grandchildren Brittany and Cricket Colebank, Sarah and Aidan Chernenkoff, Addison and Marissa MacArthur and Nokomi and Jamal Rodgerson as well as a number of nieces and nephews.

Nellie was a faithful churchgoer and kept active throughout her life. She was a keen lawn bowler, winning a gold medal at the BC Seniors' Games when she was in her 80s. She enjoyed playing bridge and watching baseball and curling. In celebration of her 95th birthday, Nellie travelled across Canada and at a stop in Toronto, was delighted to cheer her beloved Blue Jays to a win.

The family wishes to thank the staff of Olive Devaud Residence and Dr. Jacques Du Toit for their compassion and care.
