It is with great sadness that we announce the sudden passing of Pasqualina. She was born in Rodda, Pulfero, Udine, Italy and passed away peacefully at Evergreen Extended Care Unit in the loving care of her daughter Anna and very dear and close friends Elide, Maria, Evelyn and Theresa.

Pasqualina was predeceased by her husband, Ernesto, in December 1973 and her 14 siblings. She is survived by her loving family: daughter Anna Pulsifer, son-in-law Charlie of Powell River, granddaughter Melissa of London, England, grandson Josh and his wife Jodie of Vancouver and two sisters-in-law in Italy and Germany and many dear nieces and nephews in Powell River, Duncan, Vanderhoof, Ontario, Italy and Germany.

Many heartfelt thank-yous to Dr. David May for his care of Mom and support to us, all the staff at Evergreen Extended Care Unit who lovingly cared for "Momma," Jill in food services who always ensured my Mom and table six were happy at dinner time and to our dear friends for their regular ECU visits, it meant a lot to Mom.
