Tribute from Darrell Wrubleski

Relation: Friend

Thinking of you Rick...I'm so sorry that we never reconnected on my last trip to Powell River. You were the ringmaster of our group of friends back in the day...remembering the days at the A&W after hours, beach fires, house parties, potato guns, fixing your Fiat then breaking it again, your old Ford Pickup. Your life was too short but filled with life...I am proud to have been a small part of it.

Rest easy my friend.

Rick was a true friend like few in the world will ever have. He was kind to me when I needed help and had my back many times that I found out later - things he did quietly with no fanfare. I admired him so much for his confidence, humor and even his sense of mischief. We all loved the couple he and Margaret made and the beautiful family they created. I wish I could have been there today to honor you, greive you and celebrate your life with everyone. I will miss you a lot, my dear friend.
