

REMEMBERING
Roy Ernest Liebenschel

March 30, 1919 - December 28, 2010

Roy passed away on December 28, 2010 at the age of 91. He was predeceased by his wife Ivy and brother Jack Liebenschel. He is survived by his daughter Janet and her husband David Byles, grandchildren Nadine (Chris), Kristy (Colin), Angela (Drew) and five great-grandchildren. He is also survived by his extended family Dorothy, Phylis and their families. He will be truly missed for being a wonderful father, grandfather, brother, neighbour and friend throughout his life.

As a true pioneer and long-time Powell Riverite he will be remembered as a fixture in our community who was always able to recall old stories and facts about Powell River's history.

A celebration of life for Roy will be held on Tuesday, January 11 from 1 to 4 pm upstairs at the Carlson Community Club. Drop in and celebrate Roy's life with his family and friends.

