Relation: Cousin by marriage

Lynn, I know I already said it, but our deepest condolences on Tony's passing. Your description of him is absolutely spot on, gruff and intimidating on the outside but man, what a warm, wonderful and caring human being who worked so hard.

Tribute from Norma Sorensen

Relation: Friend

What a perfect and fitting description of this man. He was one of those rare people who was exactly who he claimed to be and didn't understand one bit how special that made him. He had a heart of gold and once said something to me in passing during a particularly dark time in my life that I am sure he promptly forgot. That little thing helped me immensely and I will never forget it. My heart goes out to Lynn and the rest of the family. There are never the right words to say.
